FRANK ADDRESS FROM THIERS. De the People Want a Monarchy or a Republic?

VERSAILLES, Sept. 14 .- In the Assembly to day a message was received from President Thiers, the reading of which lasted half an hour. Thiers says the members have well earned a suspension of their arduous labors. He promises in the mean time to work incessantly for the re-organization of the country, and frankly asks the deputies to ascertain from their constituents at home whether the country wishes for reconstruction based on the glorious traditions of a thousand years, or for the abandonment of the ship of state to a torrent leading to the unknown future; or in brief, whether the people want a monarchy or a republic.

The message was coolly received. Some passages were greeted with laughter. The Assembly then proceeded to discuss and finally adopted a bill providing for a prorogation of the session from the 17th of September until the 4th of December. The main feature of the bill is the appointment of a committee twentyfive to control the government during the re-

Death of Hon. A. M. Cate.

CHATTANOOGA, Sept. 14.-Hon. A. M. Cate died at his residence in this county tember 7: this morning at two o'clock of congestive chills. He was taken sick on last Friday. The funeral services will be held to-morrow morning at Ooltewah at ten o'clock.

Sad Intelligence,

With feelings of sincere sorrow, we announce in our issue this morning, the death of Hon. A. M. Cate of Hamilton county, at his residence, at two o'clock yesterday morning, as appears from a special dispatch from Chattanooga. But a short time since we met him, when he ap-peared in fine health, bidding fair to live for

Our acquaintance with the deceased commenced in the stormy period of 1863, around Murfreesboro', after the bloody battle of Stone River. He was then Commissary of the 1st Brigade, 2d Division, 14th Army Corps. By his energy and attention to duty, many a soldier boy was kept from suffering for the want of

He remained connected with the Tennessee B igade, as it was known then, until in 1864, when he was appointed by Colonel (afterwards General) Cooper, Captain of Company G., 6th Tennessee Volunteer Infantry, and participated in the exciting scenes of the Georgia campaign, rendering efficient service. In August of 1864, he tendered his resignation, which was accepted, and we saw no more of him, until we met him in April, 1865, at Nashville, when we were to be mustered out of the United States service, at the close of the war, he being a prominent member of the Tennessee Senate, in the first Legislature which assembled after the reconstruction of the State. He served in the 34th and 35th General Assemblies in that capacity, and was noted for the jealous manner in which he watched over the rights of his constituents.
Since the expiration of his last term in the Legislature, he has resided on his farm in Hamilton county, living in retirement.

His death is an event for which we were unprepared. We tender our condolence to his bereaved family.

Look At These Figures!

From the New York Times of the 12th inst.] It is now stated on the authority of Hon. Robert B. Roosevelt, Democratic member of Congress from the Fourth District of this City, that the debt of New York is not less that $200,000,000. The assessed value of the real estate of the City and County of New York for the year 1871, is $769,302,250, and that of personal property is $306,947,223, the total being $1,076,249,-478. The debt of the City is, threefore, more than 18½ per cent. of the assessed valuation of its property, and 25 per cent. J. M. Carter, of the assessed valuation of the real estate | F. Rule, which is the only part that can be counted on to pay the debt. Of this enormous burden, more than $163,000,000 or over 1, 1869, under the administration of the

MARRIED FOR A DIME.

A Native Kentuckian and No Mistake.

[From the Louisville Commercial.] A correspondent at Rocky Hill Station sends us the following, under date of Sep-

A good joke is told on Judge Houchin, of Brownsville. The Judge was seated near the bar door at the hotel of York & Houchin, when a rather pale, slender youth approached the hotel and inquired for Judge Houchin. A gentleman seated near by pointed to the Judge and observed, "there is the gentleman." The young man said to him, "Step this way, Judge." The Judge stepped to the edge of the porch, when the young man said, "I have gorne over here to get married."

come over here to get married."
"Well," said the Judge, "I have no objections."

"Well, I want you to go over to the Court House with me; I want the license."

"You must go to the clerk." The lad started off in great haste and in few minutes returned.

"They say you will marry me."
"Yes, I do marry people sometimes, but t is customary to get a minister." "What do you charge for marrying?"

"I never make any charge; I marry the boys, and they pay me whatever they think it is worth.' "You will marry me for a dollar, won't

"Well, then, won't you marry me for a quarter in silver?" "Oh, yes; the law allows me two dollars; but I always marry the boys, and they pay me just as I said, just what they think i

So the Judge started for the clerk's office with the pallid youth, and administered the marriage ceremony in these few words: "By the authority which I hold in my hand, I pronounce you man and wife." Somebody called out, "You are a married man, now." "Well, Judge, you ought to have done that for nothing; it isn't worth more than a dime, nohow!

The Plundered Vouchers.

The burglary in the Comptrollers's office is still creating intense excitement in the new court house and city hall, but the detectives have thus far failed to discover the perpetrators of the robbery. The Kings county auditor has been engaged in ex-amining the books of the county bureau, with a view to prepare a list of the abstracted vouchers. The particulars of the stracted vouchers. The Comtroller's office was broken open on Sunday night during the absence of the watchman, William Murphy, who says he went out to get something to eat, and when he came back he discovered a piece of cardboard against the glass panel of the door of the county auditor's office leading from the hall. On removing that he saw that an opening in the panel, sufficiently large to admit the passage of a man's arm, had been as, he supposed, cut, out. The fragments of the glass were lying on the floor. Through this opening he supposed that the bolts in the door had been turned.

he could see nothing out of place. Hence he did not give any alarm. The New York Sun states that three of ing been torn off. and that a large number of vouchers for work done, and county warrants for the payment of the same, had been abstracted. From one of the closets, set apart mainly for riot claims, nothing had been taken. From the other two, ten pigeon-holes have been stripped in the one case and three in the other.

These warrants and vouchers must have numbered to the torn off. and that a large number of vouchers have been stripped in the one case and three in the other. five closets under a desk were forced open numbered, together, several thousands. When the fact of this bnrglary became known, public opinion bore heavily upon the Comptroller. It was said by many that the whole affair was premeditated, and had been effected for the purpose of mystification and delay in the pending investigation. The vouchers missing were for 1869 and 1870.

Going into the county auditor's bureau,

"Well, Mayor," said a curious friend to ex-Mayor Fernando Wood a few days since, "what do you think of affairs in since, "what do you think of affairs in the since, "What is your view of the property of the Tammany? What is your view of the RESPECTFULLY ANNOUNCES THAT HE HAS situation?"

Fernando gently stroked his white mustache and bent his eye npon the topmost gable of Trinity. And over his face there came a smile like the flush of an aurora borealis or a Summer sun about to leap out of the crested wave as he coyly said, "Well, New York politics is improving. In my time people used to say there were forty thieves; now there are only four."

Twelve newspapers in Massachusetts now support Butler for Governor, namely: The Boston Times, the Newburyport Herald, the Amesburg Villager, the Peabody Press, the Old Colony Memorial, the Middlesex Journal, the Westfield News Letter, the New Bedford Mercury, the Lowell Courier, the Boston News, the Ware Journal and the Selem Peaceter. Four of them are the Salem Register. Four of them are daily journals.

"Is there a single thing the Democratic party ever held to that they haven't departed from?" asked Judge Ambler, in his speech at Marietta, last Thursday, "Yes; whisky," answered a voice in the crowd, amid roars of laughter.

In California the Democrats are like the epitah on the dead man at Genoa-We were well, wished to be better, took a little Radical Departure and here we are.-Ap-
